THE PROJECT:

The client is an environment- enthusiast with his wife and daughter having an artistic professional background who desired a house with Indian stones and climatically adaptive materials for comfortable natural environment with a condition of desiring it be completed within just 10 months.

THE SITE:

The site is located on the eighth floor of a super premium high-rise apartment property in Surat, Gujarat. The apartment offers large spaces, abundance of natural light and wind.

SUBTLE TONES OF THE STONES...

The house has a material palette with dominant Indian stones which are selected to serve as a good display background for artistic works of the client and indoor plants and materials making the space naturally and climatically pleasant by keeping it warm during winters and cold in summers. The house is also designed in a way that it is completely wheelchair- friendly for their parents.
